3) Kind reference is invited to the Govt order dated 8.1.1930 relating to the training of pandits in Agama Sastras. Under this order three teachers from among the Saivite families were permitted to be entertained on a fixed pay of Rs 30 each p.m. to teach the practical portion in the Agama Sastras. Sanction was also accorded in the same G.O. to have three candidates trained in the Agama Sastras as per syllabus of studies approved and in para 6 of the G.O. it was directed that after these 3 candidates are trained and appointed as teachers the teaching work in the college be distributed between them and the three other teachers called to do so and that a report on the subject be sent in due course for the information of Govt.

4) The report called for does not appear to have been sent to Govt as may be seen from the Collectors correspondence on the Musiri file 133/27-35 and it may be necessary to know in this connection whether the training of these candidates was over and whether they were employed as directed in the G.O. work of editing and printing the literature on Pancha Sastra under the supervision of Pandit Lakshmipuram Srinivasacharya, These three candidates were appointed as teachers in the Sanskrit College, started on a pay of Rs 50 in the grade of Rs 50-5-100 as per G.O. dated 21st Jan 1929

Reference: para 7 supra.

10. There are six posts of teachers in the Sanskrit College, Mysore for teaching Agamas. As 5 out of the 6 posts were vacant owing to want of qualified persons and owing to the low scale of pay attached to these posts, Govt. ordered that these candidates should be trained in Agamas and that they should be appointed as teachers of Agamas on a pay of Rs 50-5-100. (Vide G.O. No. 1556-9 Home. 133-27-12 dated 21st Jany. 1929). They were also asked to undertake editing and printing works on Agama sastra under the supervision of Pandit Lakshmipuram Srinivasachar in G.O. No. 2192-95 Home. 217-30-6 dated 4th April 1931.

11. Two Agama teachers on Rs 30 were appointed and the pay of Ramachandra Bhatta, Agama teacher in the college on Rs 25 was raised to Rs 30 in G.O. 1342-5 / 133-27-22 dated 7th Jany. 1930. If Govt. ordered that, effective

In the latter G.O., the Mysore Govt. was requested to submit a report on this subject. The Mysore

G.O. 29-2 Govt. states that he has submitted the report which was required to submit in his letter

28-29
question of increasing the pay of the older

K three teachers referred to in the G.O. of 7th Jany. 1930 has now to be considered.

12. Attention is however invited to the fact that Chandrasekhara Dikshit appears to be the only man who has drawn the same pay of Rs 30 for five years. The other two posts were held by Narasingara Bhatter and Ramachandra

K Bhatter according to the G.O. of 7th Jany. 1930. But these posts are reported to be held now by K. Srinivasa Iyengar and Narasa Bhatter. (Vide the P.R. 24). There was only one Agama teacher in the College when the G.O. of 21st

SIR,

Enhancement of the pay of the Agama Teachers.

In forwarding herewith a copy of letter No.490 dated 25-2-1935 together with that of its enclosure received from the Principal of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College, Mysore, on the above subject, I have the honor to state as follows:-

In accordance with G.O.No.1342-5/Muz.133-27-22 dated 7/8th January 1930, three teachers from among the Deeksha family have been entertained on a fixed pay of Rs.30/- each per mensem to teach the practical portion of the Agama Sastras. The College Committee have, at their meeting held on 5th February 1935, recommended that these teachers may be granted a graded pay of R 30-3-45. As they have been serving on the same pay for 5 years, I request that the College Committee's recommendation may be sanctioned.

2. The proposal involves an additional expenditure of Rs.30/- per mensem on an average. I had suggested a provision of Rs.360/- for the purpose in the budget of the Agama Classes; but it has not been retained in the sanctioned budget. The additional cost may therefore be met from the closing balance of the General Muzrai Fund for current year.

I have the honor to be,
Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.
